Austin Matthews has returned from a short visit to his parents in Westerly.

Plans have been made by the Children of Mary of St. John's church to hold a fair and dance for the benefit of the church.

New Pastor Arrives.

Rev. William Lakin, formerly of Plainfield, has moved into the parsonage at Palmertown and will assume his duties as pastor of the Union Baptist church tomorrow, Dec. 19.

The public schools of the town will close next week Friday for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. Roy Johnson has been spending a few days with friends on the Scotland road.

Voluntown Exercises Given by Pupils at Center School—Church Supper—Death of George H. Whipple.

Interesting exercises from the works of the poet Whittier were given by the children of the seventh and eighth grades at the Center school Friday afternoon under the direction of the principal, Miss Marion J. Hannan. A number of parents and friends of the children were present and thoroughly enjoyed the following programme: Silent Night, class; Snowbound; Introduction, Edna Herbert; Building a Path, Ida Jordan; About the Hearth, Edna Herbert; The Guest, Dorothy Scranston; The Next Day, Dorena Dupont; Snowbound, Anna Monroese; Clasp Angel of the Backward Look, Louise Lachapelle; The Three Kings of Orient East, class; The Angels of Buena Vista, Flora Dupont; Christmas Carol, class; Barfoot Boy, Alpha Livermois; Wilfred Lachapelle; John Graves, Leo Magrey; Barbara Freitchie, Flora Cavanaugh; With Hearts Truly Grateful.

Heard Harry Lander. A large delegation of local people attended the theatre at Norwich on Saturday afternoon to see and hear the famous Scotch singer.

The choir at the local churches are rehearsing Christmas programmes.

An interesting programme of motion pictures were shown at Union hall Saturday evening to a large audience.

Many at Supper. An excellent chicken pie supper was served by the ladies of the Baptist church at the chapel Tuesday evening. The tables were well filled from an early hour and the waiters were busy by the large crowd present, who seemed to enjoy the good things set before them. The programme of the evening consisted of music and games of various kinds. The affair also proved a financial success.

New Pastor Arrives. Rev. Mr. Knowles, formerly of Cheshire, who has accepted the call to the local Baptist church, preached his first sermon as pastor Sunday and made a very favorable impression. He has taken up his residence at the parsonage.

George H. Whipple's Death. George Horace Whipple, a well known business man of this town, died at the Backus hospital Wednesday morning as the result of a shock following a recent operation. Mr. Whipple was born in Voluntown Dec. 13, 1853, and has always resided in town and has acquired a large amount of real estate. He has for many years run a general store and livery stable at the center. He is survived by his wife, Ella, Charles Whipple, and one son, Everett, a sister, Mrs. Orrin Rice, of this town, and a brother, Robert W. Whipple.

GOSHEN

William H. Geer Sells Oakland Farm, in Family Since 1817—Supper and Social—Sleighing Holiday.

The Ladies' Aid society held a clam chowder supper and social in the church lecture room Friday evening.

Mrs. W. T. Curry is spending a number of days with friends in Chicopee Falls, Mass.

William H. Geer Sells Farm. W. H. Geer has sold his large farm to a New York purchaser. Mr. Geer is moving his household goods this week to his home in Washington street, Norwich. The old homestead has been in the Geer possession nearly 100 years. Mr. Geer's grandfather moved here from Ledyard in 1817. There are some grand oak trees on the place, from which it derived the name Oakland farm. The farm is pleasantly located, with as good an arrangement of farm buildings as there is in New London county. A large circle of friends will miss Mr. Geer from Goshen and Ledyard, the home town, where he has always resided.

Christmas Tree and Exercises. At the session of the Sunday school it was voted to have a Christmas exercise and also a Christmas tree Friday evening, Christmas eve.

Enjoyed K. K. K. Show. Those from Goshen who attended the very amusing entertainment given by the Keystone Komedians in Grange hall Saturday evening declared that they had never laughed so much. Others said they laughed until they cried. One of the five actors of the comedians was certainly a star for mirth and humor.

Since the last snow quite a contrast has been noted in the different vehicles used. There is good sleighing and sleighs are about as numerous as the automobiles on the main road.

Moving from Farm. It is regretted that C. W. Norton, who has been caretaker of the Geer homestead, is to move away. Mr. Norton has made many friends since living in Goshen. Being possessed of a sweet tenor voice, he has been a great help in the choir of the church.

Archie Walkingshaw of Springfield is a guest at the home of W. T. Curry. Arthur Lathrop, after quite a long period of illness, is able to be out.

Chimney Fire. There was a bad chimney fire at the home of John Allen, also at the home of F. H. Browning recently. Help from neighbors was required before the stubborn blaze could be subdued.

A curiosity as well as a thing of beauty for this time of year at the home of J. A. Randall is a tea rose in full bloom.

Entertainment by Keystone Komedians Draws Big House—Dog Dying of Distemper.

A. C. Williams lost a valuable work horse from colic some time during Monday night.

James A. Pendleton had a March pig killed one day this week which weighed when dressed 375 pounds. This is thought to be a record breaker for this part of the county.

Big House at Entertainment. The Keystone Komedians Komedians gave a very interesting and amusing entertainment in Lebanon grange hall Saturday evening for the benefit of the Yantic Fire Engine company. After the entertainment, music for dancing was furnished by the troupe's orchestra. There was a very large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hewitt and Reginald Taylor were in Norwich Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Fowler, Mrs. O. H. Pulte and Miss Mabel Noyes were in Willimantic Monday.

Rehearse Christmas Music. The Sunday school pupils of the Congregational church are rehearsing for their Christmas exercises to be given next week.

E. A. Floxie, proprietor of Hickory Hill stock farm, sold a thoroughbred registered Holstein bull to William I. Allyn of Ledyard last week.

Miss Grace Patton of Willimantic was in town recently.

The cold weather is making ice fast.

It is reported as being over five inches thick on the big ponds.

Dogs Have Distemper. Several owners of dogs are complaining of their animals dying with distemper.

LIBERTY HILL Rev. Elwell O. Mead Resigns to Go to Cornwall—Congregational Church Has More Men and Boys Than Women and Girls.

At the annual church meeting and roll call Rev. Elwell O. Mead gave in his resignation. He said it was very hard for him to leave, but the work of the two parishes was more than he felt able to do. He has accepted a call from the Congregational church at Cornwall and will commence his labors there the first Sunday in January.

Besides Mr. Mead's church duties he has been chairman of the town school board and school visitor. Both old and young of Exeter and Liberty Hill churches are sorry to have Mr. Mead leave. The town loses a very able and faithful worker. During Mr. Mead's two years' pastorate here he has delivered 26 addresses in different parts of the state that have won statewide recognition.

Liberty Hill church is the only English-speaking Congregational church that has more men and boys than women and girls as its members.

Mrs. Earl Holbrook has been in Willimantic the past three days, the guest of her niece, Mrs. Fred Jordan.

Mrs. Nathan Austin of Yantic visited her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Willis, recently.

Had Supper and Sale. The Ladies' Sewing circle had a supper and sale Friday evening. The entertainment consisted of a very interesting story told by the pastor, Rev. Elwell O. Mead.

Next Sunday the sermon and music will be appropriate for Christmas.

FRANKLIN Popular Features at Ladies' Aid Society's Christmas Sale—Kenneth Armstrong Given Surprise Party.

The Ladies' Aid society held a very successful Christmas sale Thursday of last week in the town hall. Mrs. Luther Holton and Mrs. Emma Cox had charge of the food table; the candy table being in charge of Miss Catherine Holton. The fancy work table was under the supervision of Mrs. Herman A. Gager, Mrs. Fred Race and Mrs. Lloyd P. Ayer. Much amusement was afforded by the grab bag, it being in charge of Mrs. Fred Race. The successful affair was in charge of Mrs. Herman A. Gager, Mrs. Fred Race,

Mrs. Lloyd Ayer and Mrs. O. L. Johnson. Sermon on Peace. On Sunday morning at the Franklin Congregational church the subject will be "What is Peace?"

Surprise Visit. A large number of friends of Kenneth Armstrong gave him a surprise party at his home Friday evening of last week, meeting at the parsonage and going to his home in a body. A most delightful evening was spent.

MOHEGAN Mrs. Davis of Mystic called on friends here Sunday.

Lemuel Fielding of Norwich attended church here Sunday.

Miss Ina Young of Willimantic called on Mrs. Lizzie Fowler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fleming and daughter of Norwich were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford.

Mr. Morrette and daughters Thelma and Lucy, of Danbury, spent the week end with Mrs. E. T. Baker.

Mrs. John Fielding and son, Leroy, are visiting friends in Plainfield.

Windham County CLARK'S CORNERS Monday's storm covered the ground with two inches of snow and ice. Section foreman John Navin with his gang were in Hartford helping to clear the snow from the railroad tracks.

John Hammond has returned from West Willington, where he has been employed on state road with his team.

Mrs. Aileen Jewett is in Hartford visiting her daughter.

SOUTH KILLINGLY Barn Dance—Pearl Wedding Anniversary—Plans for Christmas Entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Barlow have returned from a visit with relatives in Valley Falls.

A. A. Jacques was in Attawaugan Tuesday, to get one of his dogs that had strayed away.

Highland Grange held its regular meeting Saturday evening. Officers for the ensuing year were elected.

C. E. Child of Putnam was in this place Monday, looking after his lumber interests.

A. Mazzarelli is to have a dance in his new barn this (Saturday) evening.

Married Thirty Years. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shippee of Mashentuck celebrated their thirtieth marriage anniversary Saturday evening. About one hundred guests were present.

The various committees for the Christmas entertainment are busily at work and have their plans well under way.
